

GOLDBERG PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS

Vancouver's BEST Pre-lay Workshop

Casting Director Randi Riediger

Is an experienced voice over casting director with over 160 series, specials, movies, and games including the two-time Emmy award winning series Xmen Evolution, Fantastic Four, Ironman, Megaman, Jinroh, Kong: King of Atlantis, Dragonball Trilogy, Card Captors, Monster Rancher, Gundam Seet, ... the list goes on.

Randi holds a workshop that is in-depth and fun. It requires deadlines, teamwork, and commitment and is a safe place to ask questions and make mistakes. Its purpose is to develop talent that is new to pre-lay. You will write a three page pre-lay script ahead of time (you will be given a sample to follow). You will be required to have at least two character voices prepped and ready to work with. The morning will include a vocal warmup session, and improvisational theatre games (using your character voices) as an exercise that will show you whether the characters are up to industry standard.

After lunch, we will move to Kozmic Studio (191 West 3rd), where your three-page script will have been integrated into a half-hour episode, which we will then record over a four-hour period. The environment and work will simulate an actual pre-lay session with lessons in acting skills and recording studio protocol.

Class size is limited to only 12 people!
